STAFF REPORT

TO: Board of County Commissioners of Summit County

FROM: Sarah Vaine, Assistant County Manager

DATE: October 22, 2019

SUBJECT: Approving the Revised Emergency Medical Service Rules and Regulations

BACKGROUND

As discussed at the Board of County Commission (“BOCC”) work session held on October 8, 2019, staff has updated the existing Emergency Medical Services Rules and Regulations to incorporate the System Improvement Goal outlined in the ESCI Operational Analysis of the EMS Delivery System in Summit County dated August 2018. The proposed changes also reflect the BOCC’s regulatory role in overseeing the operation and licensing of Ambulances Services in Summit County.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the BOCC accept and adopt the revised Emergency Medical Service Rules and Regulations
