Attendees:

Elected Officials (via conference phone): Karn Stiegelmeier, Thomas C. Davidson and Elisabeth Lawrence – Commissioners
Jaime FitzSimons – Sheriff

Staff (via conference phone): Jeff Huntley, County Attorney; Sarah Vaine, Assistant County Manager; Bentley Henderson, Assistant County Manager; Marty Ferris, Finance Director; Amy Wineland, Public Health; Brian Bovaird, Director of Emergency Management; Nicole Valentine, Public Health Public Information Officer; Jim Curnutte, Community Development Director; April Paige, Executive Administrative Assistant and Lori Dwyer, Administrative Assistant.

Guests (via phone): Peter Siegel, Susan Bradley, Libby Stanford, Jeff Kneller, Pam Minard, Aaron Parnet, Misty McMillian and others that did not sign in.

Amy Wineland gave an update on Summit County's COVID-19 case numbers, with a total of 248 positives and 65 probable cases. She also noted that there is a statewide order mandating face coverings in public places beginning at midnight.

Commissioners and staff discussed strategies that Summit County may use if case numbers go back up as they have in neighboring communities and states, including reducing gathering sizes, looking at data to see where outbreaks are occurring and working with local businesses to collaborate on decisions.

Ms. Wineland noted that Public Health is currently planning influenza vaccine points of distribution in order to have robust distribution of the vaccine.

Commissioners and staff discussed when to begin planning for the coming ski season, and how to involve ski areas in future discussions.

Commissioners and staff discussed how the County can support the school district when they reopen including contact tracing, communication strategies, disinfecting procedures and symptom monitoring.

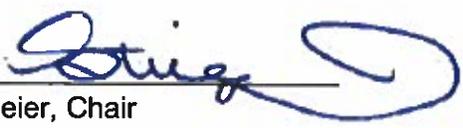

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
